

TABLE OF PROPOSED REVISIONS TO ELEVENTH CIRCUIT RULES AND IOP'S

Page	Line(s)	Circuit Rule or IOP	Comments
85 85A 85A	27 - 46 1 - 16 32	Cir. R. 31-6	Consistent with the policy of the Judicial Conference of the United States and the E-Government Act of 2002, a new rule is proposed for maintaining privacy of personal data in court filings. The proposed rule provides that when a party files a document containing one of the listed personal data identifiers, the party must file both a redacted document for the public file and an unredacted document under seal, along with a motion to file the unredacted document under seal.
92	5	Cir. R. 33-1(a)(3)	With the creation of the Department of Homeland Security, the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) no longer exists. The proposed change replaces the reference to INS with the phrase "immigration appeals"
109	5 - 8	IOP 6, Release of Opinions	The IOP is no longer a completely accurate description of clerk's office procedures. The proposed revision deletes inaccurate text.
109	15	IOP 7, Appearance of Counsel Form	The proposed change amends the IOP to conform to Cir. R. 46-1(d), which does not require court-appointed counsel to file an Appearance of Counsel Form.
